ALABAMA YOUNG MEN

Who Represent the New South Spirit and Its White Chivalry,

TELL HOW THEY FIX THE NEGROES

Black Help Must Work on All Election

Days, or Be Discharged.

The Jefferson Volunteers, of Birmingham, Ala., paid Pittsburg a visit yesterday to see auguration. The company consists of 40 in N. STOKELY, Fifth Avenue Market House. number, all protection Democrats, under J. W. WALLACE, 6121 Penn avenue. the command of Captain Clark. The majority of them are the well-heeled sons of Southern planters. They left last evening southside. Southern planters. They left last evening southern planters. They left last evening for Cincinnati, after paying Pittsburg some JACOB SPOHN, No. 2 Carson street, fine compliments.

"We came North," said J. T. Terry, Jr., a bright young fellow, "to show the people up here that we bear no animosity against them or the Government. Some of the local politicians at home censured us; but the Southeru people proper indorsed our course. We are all young voters, averaging in age about 24. Randall is our leader, and I may say that most of the Democrats in Birmingham believe in protection. The people of the South feel kindly to the North, and, we hope we command its respect.
"The stories that hatred and bitterness exist between the two sections emanate from de-HE ONLY MUST BE WHITE.

"It doesn't make any difference to us who is at the head of the Government, as long as he is a white man. The Southern people are not officeseekers, and we are perfectly willing to be ruled by Northerners, provided they are honest men. We have some fine Republicans in the South; but they are all imported. We call the home Republicans 'scalawags,' and they de-some Republicans scalawags,' and they deserve the name.

"The great problem in the South is what to do with the negro. It is a daily contest between brains and ignorance. We will never allow the blacks to be placed over us, and we think our policy is just. The country belongs to us; we occupied it first, and they are a lot of ignorant interlopers that we would like to get rid of. We feel that some action must soon be taken against them, but we hardly know what shape it will assume.

"We desire to deal justly with the colored man. I only wish the North could get a good taste of these people, and then they could appreciate the position in which we are placed. We fire all Democratic ticket for local officers. They haven't any desire, either, to be governed by ignorant negroes.

ADMITTING THE PACT.

"The fact is the negroes actually have the if we would allow them. We never resort to stuffing the ballot box, however, to get ahead of them; but we use other stratagems. They are easily bought up, and sometimes we vote them in squads. Very often we will not permit them to vote, and we keep them away from the polls, by working them all day. Most negroes polls, by working them all day. Most negroes are servants of the whites, and we gravely inform them that if they leave their work on election day, even for a moment, they will be discharged. This threat usually works like a charm. We know it isn't quite a square deal; but what else can we do?

"The freedom of the colored people was a good thing for the South. Before the war we were responsible for their living; new they will work for little or nothing, and they have to hustle for subsistence. The cost to the planter is less than in ante-bellum days, and beside the responsibility of caring for them is removed.

"As I said before, we don't care who our rulers are, but we do draw the line when it comes down to negro government."

You Are Not Shaken Before Taken With malarial disease, but with prodigious violence afterward, if you neglect immediate measures of reliof. The surest preventive and remedial form of medication is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the potency of which as an antidote to miasmatic poison has been demonstrated for over 30 years past. The liver when disordered and congessed, the bowels if constipated, and the kidneys if inactive are promptly aided by it, and it is invaluable for dyspepsia, nervous debility and rheumatism.

A Big Cut.
